PRESS RELEASE

Com.P.Ramamurti, General Secretary, Centre of Indian Trade Unions and one of the Convenors of the Conference of Central Trade Union Organisations and National Federations has issued the following statement to the Press :

The Conference of representatives of Central Trade Unions and National Federations held in May last year elected Comrades P.Ramamurti (CITU) Satish Loomba (AITUC) and Mahesh Desai (HMS) to convene a broader meeting of trade unions for implementing the decisions and declarations of the conference.

Since the group had failed to discharge its responsibility, Com.P.Ramamurti, one of the convenors' of the group convened a meeting of the constituents of the last conference of May, 1971 to consider the situation.

The representatives of HMP, CITU, UTUC, UTUC (Lenin Sarani), TUCC, All India Newspaper Employees Federation, All India Insurance Employees Association have attended the meeting held in Constitution Club to-day. Representatives of Confederation of Central Government Employees and Association and National Federation of P&T Employees have sent observers to the meeting.

The meeting is considering the present situation facing the T.U. movement and find out suitable measures to co-ordinate the united activities and struggles of the working class and how to bring about unity in the Trade Union movement.
